Expand MIECHV to reach more of the 1,568,671 families living in poverty across Michigan.

State and Tribal MIECHV programs have a proven record of success supporting the nation's most vulnerable families during a critical time in their children's development.

Increasing support for MIECHV will help Michigan:

- Expand and improve existing evidence-based home visiting services
- Enhance local reach
- Provide stability by assuring continuity of funding
- Maximize Michigan investment and increase program efficiency
- Improve implementation and evaluation of evidence-based policy
- Create increased cost-savings for taxpayers

2016 Michigan State and Tribal
MIECHV PARTICIPANTS:

2,106 families

3,828 women & children

"If it wasn't for home visiting, I wouldn't have been able to tap into the resources in the community to be able to put myself in these positions to really gain knowledge and apply myself."

— Kent County Mom

Reauthorize MIECHV with a 5-year extension including incremental funding increases up to $800M per year.
